

Well Crafted KITCHEN

JOIN OUR WELL CRAFTED FAMILY!

We are adding to our team of dynamic individuals who bring the Well Crafted mission to life!

MISSION

To create a well crafted experience and opportunity for all people to share, engage, and connect with their food, drink, each other, and their place in the world.

WE:

- appreciate real food grown locally
- aren't afraid to take risks and learn from our mistakes
- care more about who you are and what you're passionate about than your previous food experience
- pay a competitive wage and are committed to taking care of our team
- are energetic and love teamwork
- value creativity and passion

YOU:

- are interested in creating a place where food and community intersect in Baltimore
- are energetic and love teamwork
- are willing and eager to learn
- use your voice to stand up for what's right
- solve problems without pointing fingers
- appreciate the challenge of making local and seasonal eating accessible and approachable
- LOVE wood-fired pizza

TO APPLY

Please email your resume, along with answers to these questions, to hello@wellcraftedkitchen.com:

- Why are you interested in joining the Well Crafted family?
- Are you available and interested in working nights and weekends? Do you have any shift preferences (mornings, evenings, weekdays, weekends, etc.)?

Given the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, it is essential that team members are willing to minimize their risk of exposure both on and off of the job. Food service is essential work and we expect everyone on the team to take each other's health and the safety of our food system seriously. Wearing a mask is required.

We encourage ANYONE, no matter your race, gender, age, or religious beliefs, to apply knowing that we are committed to creating an enjoyable, safe working environment, and a better Baltimore.

We will review applications as soon as we receive them.
